Noble Education is proud to present

The 2014 Irish Student Ambassador to Vietnam Competition

If you are a creative, ambitious, and outgoing person that wants to develop on an academic, professional and social level, then you could be the next Irish student Ambassador to Vietnam!

Noble Education wants to send a university or college student on a 2-week all expenses paid trip to Ireland next summer to experience the Irish way of life and become the voice of Irish education in Vietnam.

Our Ambassador will explore all four corners of the country, taking in the glistening lights of Dublin City on the east coast, the cultural capital of Cork in the south, the breathtaking Cliffs of Moher in the west and the historic city of Belfast in Northern Ireland.

Visiting all the sites of natural beauty and historic universities and colleges throughout the country, our Ambassador will spread the message of Ireland and Irish education in Vietnam.

Prior to flying to Ireland, the winner of our competition will attend an awards ceremony at the Irish Embassy where they will be presented with their trophy of excellence by H.E. Damien Cole, the Irish Ambassador to Vietnam.
Application Process

Round One: In 300 words of less, we want to know why you should be selected as the ‘2014 Irish Student Ambassador to Vietnam’. While academic excellence is important, we also want to hear about your extra curricular activities such as sports, charitable work, entrepreneurial ventures and any other hobbies or interests you may have.

Applications can be downloaded on our website www.nobleeducation.com.vn and should be submitted by email to ISA@nobleeducation.com.vn no later than Thursday 5th of December.

Note: Any applications received after the Thursday 5th of December will not be considered.

The top 20 applications will progress to the final round and the winners will be announced at each location of the Irish Education Fair 2013 (from 7th – 9th December)

Round Two: Our 20 finalists will be asked to create a video clip of no more than 3 minutes in length that will display their creative skills, and ability to convey a message in a fun, bright and artistic way. In addition they will be asked to demonstrate their leadership skills by gaining a following for their video through social media platforms.

Finalists will be provided the exact brief for the video on the 17th of February 2014 and will given 4 weeks to submit their entry. The winner of the 2014 Irish Student Ambassador to Vietnam Competition and recipient of the 2-week trip to Ireland will be announced on the 31st of March 2014.
